Making Wudu

A clean-and-ready Islamic lesson for little Muslims

Say Bismillah - wash nicely
Get ready to pray

Getting Ready to Pray

Before we pray, we make wudu.

Wudu means washing parts of our body to become clean for prayer.

When we start wudu, we say:

Bismillah

This means: In the name of Allah.

Simple Wudu Steps

1 Wash your hands

2 Rinse your mouth

3 Clean your nose

4 Wash your face

5 Wash your arms

6 Wipe your head

7 Wash your feet

Now you are ready to pray!

Wash Gently

1

Wash your hands

2

Rinse your mouth

3

Clean your nose

4

Wash your face

Take your time. Wudu is calm and beautiful.

Almost Ready!

Clean body and peaceful heart for prayer.

A Little Story

Little Maryam wanted to pray with her mother.

Her mother said,
"First we make wudu."

Maryam washed her hands, face, and feet.

Her mother smiled and said,
"MashaAllah! Now you are ready to talk to Allah in prayer."

Maryam felt peaceful and happy.

Let's Practice

- 1 Say Bismillah
- 2 Make wudu nicely
- 3 Stand calmly
- 4 Pray to Allah

Now your heart and body are clean for Allah.

Wudu Finger Path

Follow the water drops with your finger.

Say: Alhamdulillah for wudu!

Remember

Before prayer, we make wudu.

Start by saying Bismillah.

Wash gently and carefully.

Be calm and respectful.

Clean body + clean heart = happy Muslim.

Allah loves children who try to pray and stay clean.
