

Have Good Manners

A Hadith Lesson for Little Muslims

For Kids Ages 3-5

Salaam! Be kind and polite.

Good manners make hearts happy.

The Hadith

The Prophet ﷺ said:

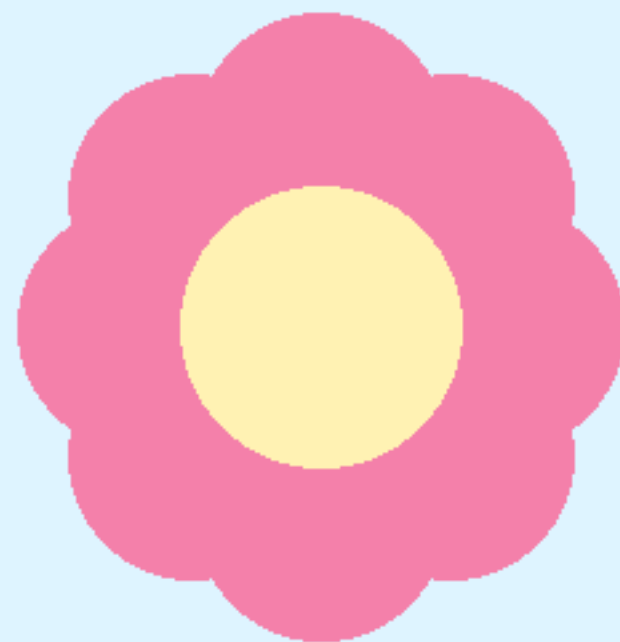

خَيْرُكُمْ أَحْسَنُكُمْ أَخْلَاقًا

This means:

The best of you are those with the best manners.

Narrated by Abdullah ibn Amr (RA)

Sahih al-Bukhari

SubhanAllah! Good manners are loved in Islam.

Good Manners

Say kind words

Use gentle words that make people smile.

Respect others

Listen, share, and care for people.

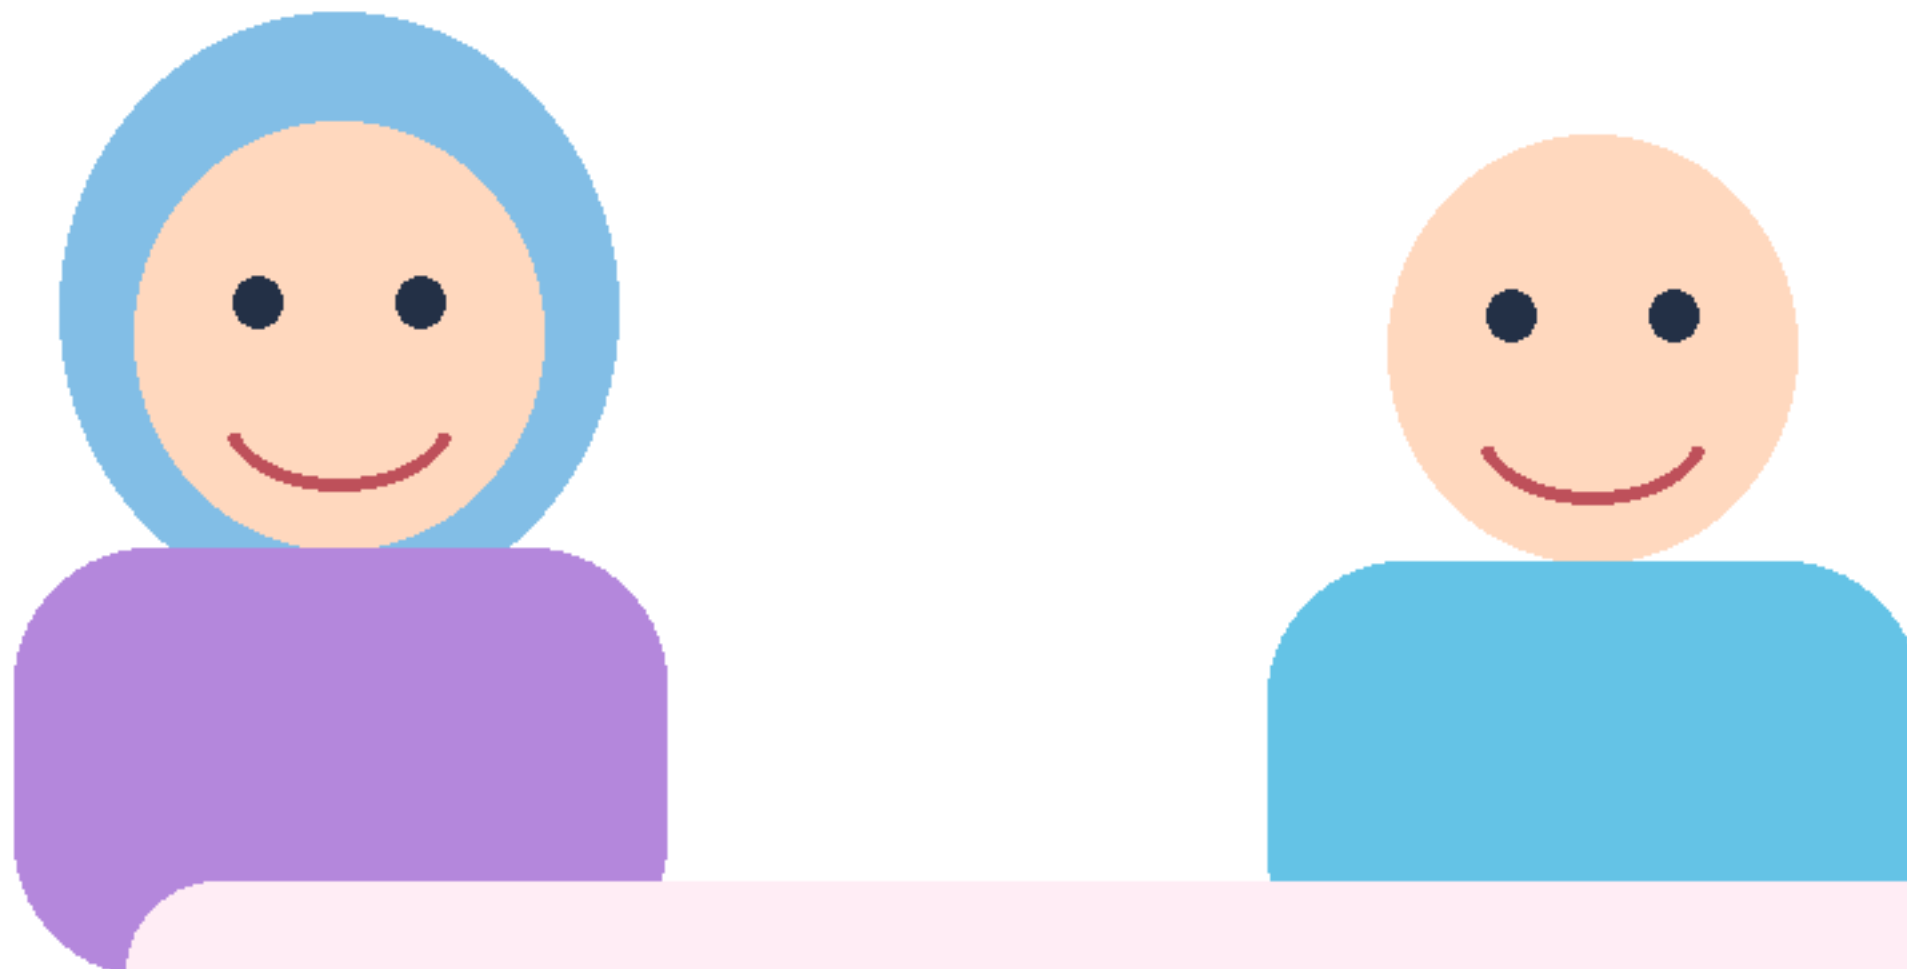

Be polite

Say please, thank you, and JazakAllah khair.

Kind words are beautiful.

A Little Story

Please and thank you!

Aisha used good manners.

She said “please” and “thank you.”

Everyone smiled and loved her manners.

Aisha felt happy because she was kind.

MashaAllah, Aisha!

Let's Practice!

Say kind words

Please
Thank you

Be respectful

Smile and be polite

Practice good manners every day.

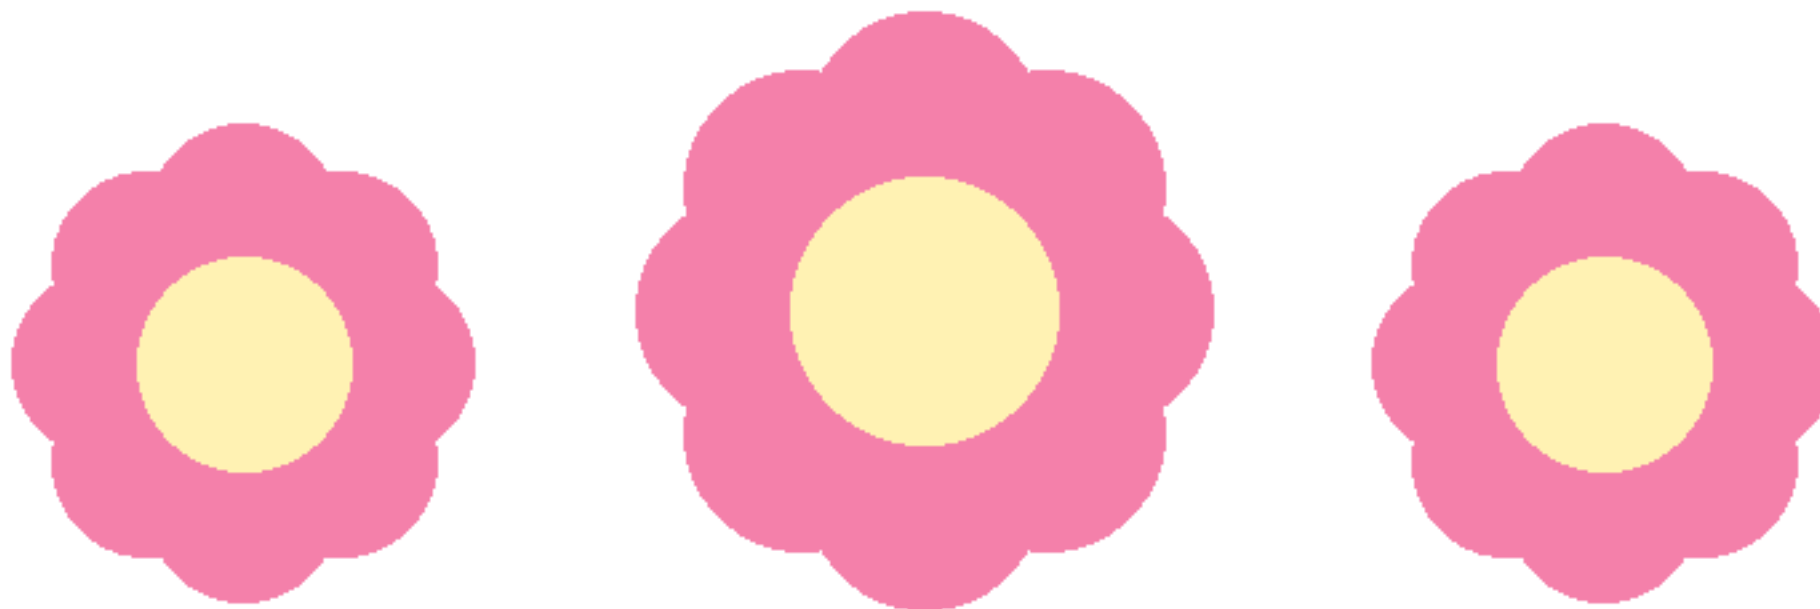

Remember

Good manners make you the best!

Say it with me:

“I will speak kindly and respect others!”

Kind words + good manners = happy Muslim

