

Speak Good Words

A Hadith Lesson for Kids Ages 3-5

Say good or stay quiet

Kind words make hearts happy!

We speak nicely because we love Allah.

Good words are a beautiful Sunnah.

Salaam! Speak Good Words

What should we say?

Good words!

We use kind words with our family, friends, and teachers.
A good Muslim speaks gently and nicely.

Please

Thank you

JazakAllah Khair

Good words are sweet, soft, and kind.

The Prophet Taught Us

The Prophet Muhammad said:

مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ
فَلْيَقُلْ خَيْرًا أَوْ لِيَصْمُتْ

This means:

"Say good or stay quiet."

Narrated by Abu Hurairah (RA) - Sahih al-Bukhari & Sahih Muslim

When our words are kind,
Allah loves our good manners.

Good Words

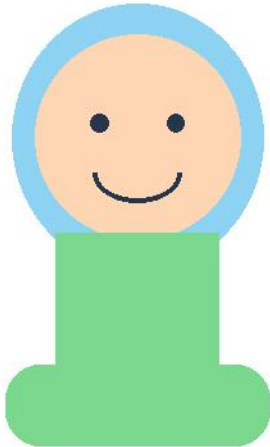

Use kind words

- Be kind.
- Speak nicely.
- Say “please”.
- Say “thank you”.
- Say “Assalamu Alaikum”.
- Say “JazakAllah Khair”.

Soft words make people smile.

A Little Story

I will use kind words!

- Maryam felt upset during playtime.
- She wanted to shout, but then she remembered the hadith.
- Maryam chose kind words instead.
- She spoke softly and said, "Please can I have a turn?"
- Everyone liked her good manners.

MashaAllah, kind words are beautiful!

Let's Practice!

- 1 Speak kindly
- 2 Use soft words
- 3 Stay quiet if upset
- 4 Smile and try again

Try today:

Say one kind word to someone!

Remember

Good words make others happy.

Allah loves kind speech.

If we feel upset, we can stay quiet.

I speak good words for the sake of Allah.

"Say good or stay quiet."

The End
