Allah Made Animals

Why You Are Learning This

Animals come in many different shapes, sizes, and colors.

Some animals fly in the sky .

Some swim in the water . Some walk, run, crawl, or jump on the earth .

This lesson helps you notice the wonderful variety of animals Allah created:

- Allah created all animals.
- Allah created animals in different forms.
- We should treat animals with kindness.

Name of Allah

Al-Bāri'

The One Who Brings Creation Into Being

Allah brings His creation into being as He wills. Look at how different animals are!

Allah made birds with wings .

Allah made fish that swim .

Allah made horses that run .

Allah made tiny ants and huge animals.

Allah is Al-Bāri'.

Qur'an Anchor

الْمُصَوِّرُ

Huwa Allāhul-Khāliqul-Bāri'ul-Muṣawwir

"He is Allah, the Creator, the Originator, the Fashioner."

(Surah Al-Hashr, 59:24)

Hadith Anchor

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us to show kindness to animals.

He told us about a man who saw a thirsty dog . The man gave the dog water. Allah appreciated his kind action and forgave him. The Prophet ﷺ taught that there is a Allah is Al-Bāri'. He created living creatures in many different forms. Some have wings, some have fins, some have fur, feathers, or shells!

Think About It: Think of three animals. How are they different from one another? 🤔 reward for being kind to living creatures.

A Believer Is Kind:

We should not hurt animals for fun.
We should be gentle and caring. ❤️

Story Time

The Little Bird

One morning, a child saw a little bird sitting near the garden. 🐦

The bird had tiny feet, soft feathers, and two wings. Soon, the bird opened its wings and flew into the air.

The teacher asked: "Who created this little bird?"

The child answered: "Allah created it."

The teacher smiled: "Yes. Allah is Al-Bāri'."

The child watched the bird fly away and said:

"SubhanAllah." ✨

There was an ant crawling 🐜, a butterfly flying 🦋, and a cat walking 🐱. All different, all created by Allah!

Islamic Story & Reminder

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught people not to be cruel to animals.

He told us about a woman who treated a cat badly 🐱. She kept the cat trapped and did not give it food.

The Prophet ﷺ warned us about such cruelty.

Remember:

Animals are Allah's creation. If an animal is hungry, we feed it. If it is thirsty, we give it water. 🍽️💧

What This Lesson Is NOT Saying

- You must know the name of every animal.
- You must touch or go near every animal.
- Every animal is safe to play with.

What This Lesson IS Saying

- Allah created animals in many forms.
- We can notice how wonderfully animals are made.
- We should be kind to animals.

Calm Reflection

Think about an animal you like. A cat, bird, horse, or fish! 🐟 What makes it special?

Now say softly:

"Allah created this animal."

Think of a completely different animal. Say:

"SubhanAllah." ✨

Effort Check

Today, did you try to:

- notice an animal Allah created?
- say SubhanAllah?
- treat an animal kindly?
- thank Allah for the animals?

That is a good effort! 🌟
