

Allah Loves Goodness!

A gentle lesson for little hearts (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

Allah loves goodness.

Heart Goal

The child begins to connect good actions with Allah's love.

Lesson Objective

The child identifies a simple good action and connects it to pleasing Allah.

Language Focus: Good deeds / actions

Story Time with Fatimah

Fatimah was playing when she saw that her little brother had dropped his toy . He looked sad.

Fatimah picked it up and gave it back to him. Her brother smiled .

Their father  saw what happened and said, "That was kind."

Fatimah smiled. Then her father said,

"Allah loves goodness."

Fatimah looked up. "Goodness?"

"Yes," he said. "When we are kind, helpful, gentle, and good, Allah loves that." 💖

Fatimah thought about what she had done. She had helped her brother. That was something good.

She smiled again and said, "Allah loves goodness."

Later that day, she shared a snack 🍪, used gentle words, and helped clean up her toys 🧹.

Each time, she remembered the same beautiful sentence:
"Allah loves goodness." ✨

Talk Together

- What did Fatimah do?
- Was that a good action?
- What does Allah love?

Let's Say It!

"Allah loves goodness."

Tiny Dua

O Allah, help me do good.

✨ Practice Today

Do one good action today:

- help someone • share something • use kind words

Then say: "Allah loves goodness." 😊

Teacher/Parent Note:

Keep the lesson positive. Focus on attraction to good, not shame for mistakes. Help the child associate doing kind things with gaining the love of Allah.
