

Allah Made the Animals!

A joyful lesson for little hearts (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

Allah made the animals.

Heart Goal

The child feels joy and tenderness toward animals as part of Allah's creation.

Lesson Objective

The child can recognize that animals are made by Allah and should be treated gently.

Language Focus: SubhanAllah

Story Time with Hassan

Hassan was walking with his father  when he saw a small cat  near the wall. The cat looked up with bright eyes. Hassan smiled.

"Look!" he said. "A cat!"

The cat moved slowly and sat down in the sun .

Hassan wanted to run fast, but his father gently touched his shoulder and said,

"Be gentle."

Hassan nodded. He stepped softly.

His father asked, "Who made this cat?"

Hassan thought for a moment. Then his father said,
"Allah made the cat. Allah made the birds 🐦, the sheep 🐑,
the cows 🐮, and all the animals."

Hassan watched the cat carefully. It was small, soft, and quiet.

"Allah made the animals," he said.

His father smiled. "Yes. And we are gentle with Allah's creation." 🌿

Hassan looked at the cat and kept his hands calm. He did not scare it. He did not shout. He just watched with a happy heart 💖.

Then he whispered,

"SubhanAllah. Allah made the animals." ✨

Talk Together

- What animal did Hassan see?
- Who made the animals?
- How should we act around animals?

Let's Say It!

"Allah made the animals."

Tiny Dua

SubhanAllah.

Practice Today

When you see an animal, say:

"Allah made the animals."

Then practice being gentle.

Teacher/Parent Note:

The lesson is not about facts about animals. It is about gentleness, awe, and recognizing Allah's creation. Encourage children to observe animals calmly and kindly.
