

🌟 Allah Sees My Kindness!

An encouraging lesson for little hearts (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

Allah sees my kindness.

Heart Goal

The child feels encouraged that kind actions are seen by Allah.

Lesson Objective

The child recognizes that even small acts of kindness matter and are known to Allah.

Language Focus: Kindness

Story Time with Zaynab 🧒

Zaynab was walking with her teacher 🧑 when she saw some books 📖 on the floor. No one else stopped.

Zaynab bent down and picked them up. She placed them neatly on the shelf.

Her teacher smiled and said, "That was kind."

Zaynab smiled too. "No one saw me," she said.

Her teacher gently answered,
"Allah saw you." ✨

Zaynab looked up quietly.

"Allah sees your kindness," her teacher said. "Even small kind things." 💖

Zaynab thought about that. Even when people did not notice, Allah knew.

Later, Zaynab moved a chair 🪑 back into place. She shared her crayons 🖍️. She made room for a friend.

Each time, she remembered:

"Allah sees my kindness." ✨

That made her feel happy 😊. She wanted to keep doing good, not for showing off, but because Allah loves kindness and sees what is in our actions.

Talk Together

- What kind thing did Zaynab do?
- Did Allah see her kindness?
- Can small kind things matter?

Let's Say It!

"Allah sees my kindness."

Tiny Dua

O Allah, help me be kind.

✨ Practice Today

Do one small kind thing, even if no one notices.

Then say:

"Allah sees my kindness." 💖

Teacher/Parent Note:

This lesson introduces gentle moral awareness without pressure. The tone should stay uplifting, not heavy. Emphasize that Allah's sight of our actions is a warm, loving, and encouraging reality.
