

Prophet Ibrahim Loved Allah! ✨

A heart-centered lesson for little ones (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

Prophet Ibrahim loved Allah.

Heart Goal

The child connects loving Allah with beauty, closeness, and goodness.

Lesson Objective

The child hears the story and expresses the simple idea that Ibrahim loved Allah.

Language Focus: Love Allah

Story Time 🧒

There was a Prophet named Ibrahim. ✨

Ibrahim loved Allah very much. 💖

He remembered Allah. He turned to Allah. He stayed close to Allah. 😊

A little girl 🧒 listened to this story with bright eyes. She asked, "Did Ibrahim love Allah?"

Her mother 🧒 smiled and said,

"Yes. Ibrahim loved Allah." ✨

The girl put her hand on her chest. 🙌

She was quiet for a moment. Then she said softly, "I want to love Allah too." 💕

Her mother nodded. "That is beautiful."

The girl smiled. She liked knowing that one of Allah's Prophets loved Him so much. 🕌

All day, she remembered the simple and beautiful truth:
"Ibrahim loved Allah."

Talk Together

- Who loved Allah?
- Can we love Allah too?
- How can we remember Allah?

Let's Say It!

"Ibrahim loved Allah."

Tiny Dua

O Allah, help me love You.

Practice Today

Say once during the day:

"I love Allah." 💕

Teacher/Parent Note:

This lesson is about love, not testing. Keep it soft, sincere, and heart-centered. Let the child feel the warmth of loving the Creator without any pressure.
