

The Prophet ﷺ Loved Children! 🕌

An affectionate lesson for little hearts (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

The Prophet ﷺ loved children.

Heart Goal

The child feels loved and welcomed through learning about the mercy of the Prophet ﷺ.

Lesson Objective

The child participates by listening, repeating, or smiling in response to the idea that the Prophet ﷺ loved children.

Language Focus: Prophet Muhammad ﷺ

Story Time 🧒

One day, a little girl sat with her mother 🧒 and asked, "Did the Prophet ﷺ love children?"

Her mother smiled warmly and said, "Yes. The Prophet ﷺ loved children." ✨

The little girl listened carefully. 👂

"He was kind to them," her mother said. "He smiled at them. He cared for them. He spoke gently." 🌸

The little girl smiled. "He loved children like me?"

"Yes," her mother said. "He loved children like you." 💖

The girl felt happy inside 😊. She was learning about someone very special.

Her mother continued, "When we learn about the Prophet ﷺ, we learn kindness, mercy, and love."

The little girl sat quietly and thought about that beautiful truth.

Then she smiled and said, "The Prophet ﷺ loved children."

Her mother hugged her 🤗 and said, "Yes. And we love him too." 💖

Talk Together

- Who loved children?
- Was the Prophet ﷺ kind to children?
- Do we love the Prophet ﷺ?

Let's Say It!

"The Prophet loved ﷺ children."

Tiny Dua

Allahumma salli
'ala Muhammad.

Practice Today

Smile at a child 😊, speak kindly 🗣️, or show gentleness the way the Prophet ﷺ loved gentleness.

Teacher/Parent Note:

The goal is emotional closeness to the Prophet ﷺ. Keep the tone affectionate and calm. Let the child feel the warmth and love of the Prophet ﷺ in the way you tell the story.
