

The Prophet ﷺ Smiled!

A bright lesson for little hearts (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

The Prophet ﷺ smiled.

Heart Goal

The child connects smiling with kindness and beauty.

Lesson Objective

The child recognizes smiling as a good action and connects it to the Prophet ﷺ.

Language Focus: Smile

Story Time with Hasan

Hasan came into class with a quiet face. His teacher  looked at him and gave him a warm smile. 😊

Hasan smiled back.

Later that day, his mother  told him something beautiful. She said,

"The Prophet ﷺ smiled." ✨

Hasan looked up. "He smiled?"

"Yes," she said. "He was gentle and kind. Smiling is a beautiful thing." 💛

Hasan thought about that. A smile can make someone feel happy. A smile can make someone feel welcome.

The next morning, Hasan saw his sister 🧒 and smiled at her. Then he smiled at his grandmother 🧓 too.

Everyone smiled back. 😊

Hasan felt good inside. He remembered that the Prophet ﷺ smiled, and that made him want to smile with kindness too.

He said softly,
"The Prophet ﷺ smiled." 😊

Talk Together

- What did the Prophet ﷺ do?
- How can a smile make someone feel?
- Can you give a kind smile?

Let's Say It!

"The Prophet ﷺ
".smiled"

Tiny Dua

Allahumma salli
'ala Muhammad.

Practice Today

Give one kind smile 😊 to someone at home or in class.

Teacher/Parent Note:

Do not overcomplicate this lesson. Let it stay simple, bright, and imitative. Make sure you share a big, warm smile with the child as you read!
