

✨ The Prophet ﷺ Told the Truth! ✨

An honorable lesson for little hearts (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

The Prophet ﷺ told the truth.

Heart Goal

The child feels that truthfulness is noble, beautiful, and connected to the Prophet ﷺ.

Lesson Objective

The child recognizes telling the truth as a prophetic quality.

Language Focus: Truth

Story Time with Bilqis

Bilqis asked her mother 🧑, "What was the Prophet ﷺ like?"

Her mother answered,

"He told the truth." ✨

Bilqis listened carefully. 🧐

"He was honest," her mother said. "He did not lie. He spoke truthfully." 🗣️

Bilqis thought about that all day. 🤔

Later, she spilled a little water 💧 while helping at the table. Her mother asked, "Did this happen just now?"

Bilqis looked at the water. Then she said,
"Yes. I did it."

Her mother smiled gently. "Thank you for telling the truth." ❤️

Bilqis felt calm inside 😊. She remembered something beautiful:

"The Prophet ﷺ told the truth." 🕌

That made truth feel strong and good. 💪

Talk Together

- What did the Prophet ﷺ do?
- Is telling the truth good?
- What did Bilqis do?

Let's Say It!

"The Prophet
told the ﷺ truth."

Tiny Dua

O Allah, help me tell the truth.

☀️ Practice Today

When someone asks you something, answer with truthful words. 🗣️ ✨

Teacher/Parent Note:

This lesson should build dignity in truthfulness, not fear of mistakes. When children tell the truth about a spill or a mistake, praise their honesty so they feel safe being truthful.
