

I Say Alhamdulillah!

A joyful lesson for little hearts (Ages 3-5)

Big Idea

We say Alhamdulillah when Allah gives us blessings.

Heart Goal

The child feels thankful and happy to praise Allah.

Lesson Objective

The child repeats "Alhamdulillah" after finishing food or noticing a blessing.

Language Focus: Alhamdulillah

Story Time with Ahmad

Ahmad finished drinking his milk 🥛. He put down his cup and smiled.

His father 👤 asked, "Was it good?"

Ahmad nodded. "Yes."

Then his father said, "Who gave you the milk?"

Ahmad thought quietly.

His father smiled and said,

"Allah gave it to you." ✨

Ahmad looked at his cup again.

"When Allah gives us blessings," his father said, "we say, 'Alhamdulillah.'"

Ahmad repeated the words carefully: "Alhamdulillah."

His father smiled. "Very good." 😊

Later, Ahmad found his shoes 👟, played with his toy 🧸, and ate a sweet date 🌴. Each time, he remembered that good things are blessings from Allah.

By the end of the day, Ahmad said it again with a happy face:

"Alhamdulillah." ❤️

Talk Together

- What do we say for Allah's blessings?
- Who gives us food and drink?
- Can you say Alhamdulillah?

Let's Say It!

"I say Alhamdulillah."

Tiny Dua

Alhamdulillah.

Practice Today

After eating or after receiving something good, say:

"Alhamdulillah." 🎈

Teacher/Parent Note:

Focus on joy and gratitude, not forced repetition. Let the child connect the phrase to real blessings.
