Little Reminder

Blessings come from Allah. Allah can make things better by His permission.

Story Time

The Story Begins

When Muhammad ﷺ was a baby, a kind woman named Halimah cared for him. Halimah took him to her home.

Before baby Muhammad ﷺ came, life was hard. There was not much food. The animals were weak. The family was tired.

Then Allah Sent Blessings

But Allah sent blessings. The animals became stronger. There was more milk. There was more food.

Life became easier. Everything became better by Allah's permission.

We Remember

Allah placed blessings around Muhammad ﷺ.

Feel It

Feel It

Halimah's family was happy. They knew this baby was special.
What blessings has Allah given your family?

Think About Allah's Blessings

Do you have food?
A home?
People who love you?
A body that can move?
A tongue that can say Alhamdulillah?

We Love Prophet Muhammad ﷺ Because...

Allah placed blessings around him.
