

A Special Story

Good Children Love Their Parents

A Story About Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and His Mother

A colorful Islamic storybook for ages 3-5 about loving parents, respect, and being helpful.

A Loving Mother
Aminah cared for him

A Kind Child
Gentle and respectful

Love Your Parents
Make them smile

For Kids Ages 3-5

Big Idea

Big Idea

Good children love their parents.

Wonder Question

Who takes care of you when you are sick?

Little Reminder

Parents care for us with love. Allah loves when children respect and love their parents.

Story Time

The Story Begins

Muhammad ﷺ loved his mother. Her name was Aminah. She cared for him. She held him. She comforted him. She made him feel safe. A mother's love is a beautiful gift from Allah.

A Loving Child

Muhammad ﷺ spent time with his mother. He loved her. He was gentle. He was respectful. He was a child who loved his family.

We Remember

We love Prophet Muhammad ﷺ because he loved his family.

Feel It

Think About It

What is something kind your mother does for you?

What can you do to make your parents smile?

We Love Prophet Muhammad ﷺ Because...

He loved his family.

Rushd Skill

Respect.

My Heart Words

I Am Statement

I respect my parents.

My Challenge

Do one helpful thing for your parents today.

You can bring them water, clean up your toys, say "Thank you," or give them a hug.

Family Challenge

Tell your mother or father: "I love you for the sake of Allah."

Dua & Love

Dua

Rabbi irhamhuma kama rabbayani sagheera.

My Lord, have mercy on my parents as they cared for me when I was small.

Little Reminder

When we make dua for our parents, it shows love and gratitude.

Smile Thought

Good children use kind words and helpful hands.

Mastery & Repeat

Mastery Check

What was the name of Muhammad's ﷺ mother?

Answer: Her name was Aminah.

Child Repeats

I love my parents.

I respect my parents.

Carry This With You

Good children love their parents.

I can follow Prophet Muhammad ﷺ by being loving, gentle, and respectful.